

Colusa County: Tobacco Fact Sheet

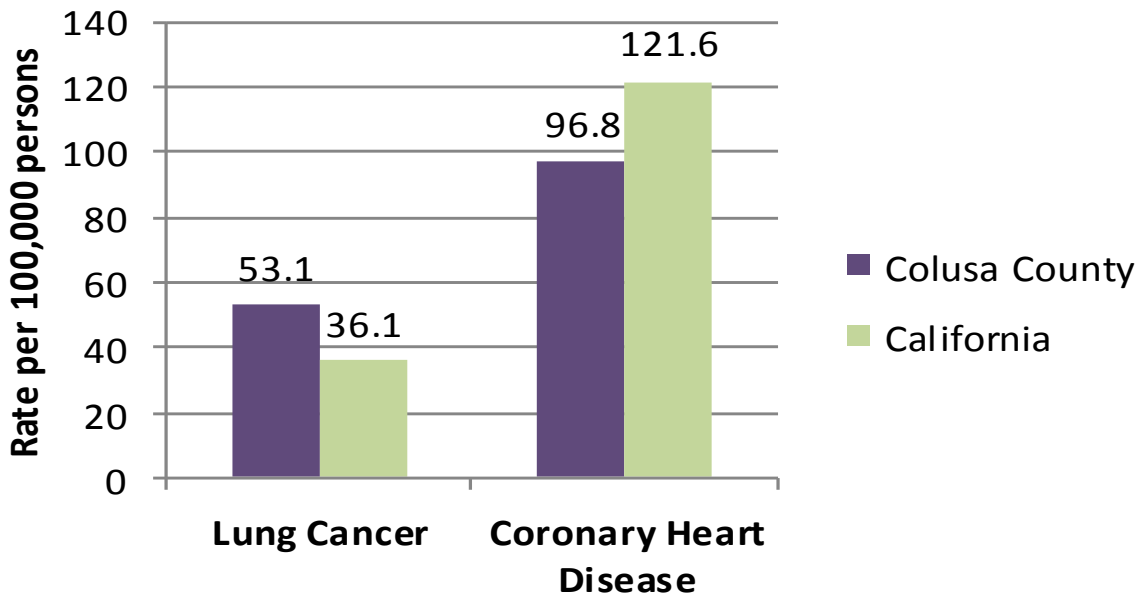

In 2010, 10.8% of Colusa County youth residents were current smokers, compared to the state rate of 13.8%. 6.7% of youth were smokeless tobacco users compared to the state rate of 3.9%.¹

18.7% of Colusa County adults were smokers in 2008, compared to the state average of 13.2%.²

3.2% of Colusa County adults were smokeless tobacco users in 2008, compared to the state average of 1.9%.²

Tobacco Related Deaths

The average lung cancer death rate in Colusa County for 2008-2010 was 53.1 per 100,000 persons compared to the state rate of 36.1. The average coronary heart disease death rate was 96.8 per 100,000 persons compared to the state rate of 121.6³

For more information, contact the Colusa County Tobacco Education Program at 530-458-0380 or TEP@colusadhhs.org.

If you are interested in quitting tobacco, call the California Smokers' Helpline at 1-800-NO-BUTTS or 1-800-45-NO-FUME

References:

1. C-STATS 2008
2. C-STATS 2010
3. 2012 County Health Status Profiles

Sources of data: 2012 Health Status Profiles, C-STATS 2008 and 2010